

82%

of fellows are bilingual, with 13 non-English languages represented.

71%

of fellows are first-generation college students.

87%

of fellows belong to racial/ethnic minority groups, as defined by CDC.*

Training Stats

Initial Training

59 subject matter experts conducted three weeks of intensive virtual training on core public health topics.

Knowledge assessments improved by 24% & self-reported public health core competencies scores increased by 32%.

Continuing Education

Delivered 170 hours of training & continuing education since August 2021.

“I am getting more and more involved in my county responsibilities over a wider spectrum of the public health continuum and this is very exciting to me.”

- 2022 Fellow

90% of fellows report feeling very or extremely satisfied with the CA-PHC program.

“Racial/ethnic minority groups” includes people of color with a wide variety of backgrounds & experiences (Centers for Disease Control & Prevention, 2022).*